

Lies Vs. Truth About Money

LIE: "You'll be happier if you have more money."

TRUTH: God promises to meet all our needs. (Eccl. 5:10; Phil. 4:19; Psalm 23)

LIE: "You'll feel more secure if you have more money."

TRUTH: True security is only found in God's presence. (Proverbs 18:10, 23:4-5)

LIE: "God is holding out on you when it comes to money."

TRUTH: God wants us to live free. (Galatians 5:1, John 10:10)

LIE: "You are a failure when it comes to money."

TRUTH: We are not our mistakes; we are who God says we are. (Romans 8:1)

LIE: "You don't have enough."

TRUTH: We can be content with God's provision in my life. (Philippians 4:11-12)

LIE: "The money you have is yours."

TRUTH: God is the owner of everything; we're managers. (Deut. 8:17-18)

LIE: "Don't worry about debt. Everyone has it."

TRUTH: Be wary of debt, as it can become bondage. (Prov. 22:7)

LIE: "Your worth and value are equal to your account balance."

TRUTH: Our value and worth is secure as God's beloved children. (1 Peter 2:9)

LIE: "You can be generous when you have more money."

TRUTH: Generosity is a posture of the heart, even in poverty. (2 Cor. 8:1-15)

LIE: "I can have a good life once I become wealthy."

TRUTH: A good life is found by being rich in good works. (1 Tim. 6:17-19)
