LIVING A RESILIENT LIFE part 5
“SEEING THE BIG PICUTURE “
Genesis 42-45 and 50:15-21
Associate Teaching Pastor, Tom Garasha

1. Resilient people do not allow the past to dictate the future.
2. Resilient people clarify their convictions before temptations come.
3. Resilient people bloom where they are planted.
4. Resilient are able to see the bigger picture.

Principle #1: When betrayed and disappointed by people you open the door of _____ a little at a time.

Principle #2: Somebody with a big picture mindset understands that God can surely bring about _____ in anybody's life.

Principle #3: Big picture people often have a big “_____” _____ to realize what God was up to.

Principle #4: People who see the big picture understand how important it is to _____.

What is God's plan for me?

- 1 For us to experience what he experienced _____.
2. For us to realize that we have _____.
3. To free us from the bondage of _____.

Principle #5: People who see the big picture understand that God is the one who is putting the puzzle of our lives together with a _____.

(Rom. 8:28)

1. This is reserved for those who love God
2. Good does not mean prosperity, health, popularity, success, and live happily ever after. It may include some of those things but that is not what God promises us. Good means to ultimately mold us to be more like Christ. (That is always His purpose.)

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Knowing that you have been betrayed, how careful are you to reopen the door of trust?
2. How are all things possible with God when it comes to change in a person's life?

3. When did you have the opportunity for an “aha” moment with God to prove his faithfulness in difficult times?
4. Is there somebody in your life that you are withholding forgiveness? Have you forgiven yourself?
5. In what ways is God orchestrating in your life for your good?
