

Sunday, February 19, 2017

TOXIC

Week 3: When and How Should We Reconcile

Pastor Scott Savage

Looking Out for Brooms...

depends on _____.

Definition: Reconciliation is the _____ of restoring a broken relationship where _____ involved has experienced forgiveness.

Passage: Genesis 32-35

4 Reconciliation Insights:

1. Reconciliation can take _____ and demand great _____.
2. Reconciliation moves us _____, not _____.
3. _____ precedes reconciliation.
4. Reconciliation doesn't always _____ the way we would like.

Action Items:

_____ the discussion questions (by yourself and in a community group).

2. _____ your letter of forgiveness (if you haven't already).
3. Identify your _____ in pursuing reconciliation.
4. Surrender the _____ to God.

Discussion Questions:

- Where has equating forgiveness with reconciliation gotten you in trouble in the past?
- Where are you having to be patient with reconciliation?
- What was your biggest lesson from the two Biblical examples of reconciliation?
- Which of the myths that Pastor Scott addressed were most helpful for you?
- When has reconciliation not worked out in the way you wanted it?
- What has God been calling you to surrender during this series?
- What's your next step in pursuing reconciliation?

If you are interested in an electronic version of the sermon notes, please go to prescottcornerstone.com and click on our Archive menu. Here you will find the most recent sermon notes.