6 Lessons from a Turkey Farmer

1. You will never grow to _____ unless you learn how to train yourself with _____ food.

(Hebrews 5:11-14 NIV)

2. The only thing that should come out of our _____ should be the _____ of one another. (Ephesians 4:29 NIV)

3. Our sin can have a _____ contagious _____ on others. (1 Corinthians 5:6 NIV)

4. _____ can separate us from the love of God. (Romans 8:37-39 NIV)

5. There are those who claim to be Christians, but in _____, they are not. (Revelation 3:21, Matthew 7:21 NIV)

6. Gratitude is a _____ of the benefits of life. (Philippians 4:6-7)

Next Steps:

1. Contemplate which lesson seems to hit home in your life.
2. Confess the issue honestly to the Lord and ask for clarity to take some positive steps towards greater victory in the specific area.
3. Invite accountability with somebody you trust.
4. Memorize the scripture that was attached to each lesson.

Discussion Questions:

- What steps have you taken in your spiritual journey to feed yourself? Which have been most effective?
- What is the most difficult temptation you face in taming your tongue? (Gossip, Anger, Complaining, Criticizing others, Swearing, etc.)
- When have you seen the "negative contagious impact" of your sin? What did this awareness lead you to do?
- How have you experienced God's love in a tangible way this year?
- Have you ever faced uncertainty regarding your salvation? How did you establish confidence in your standing before God?
- How have you kept a "mindful awareness" of the benefits of life? What do your gratitude practices look like?
