

Easter for Prescott: Hope Rises
Sunday, April 1, 2018
Pastor Scott Savage

The lie we believe on Easter...

The Fog is induced by...

- 1.
2. (Mark 9:23-24)
3. (Matthew 14:29-31)
4. (Mark 14:48-50)

No one _____ the Resurrection, even the disciples.

Big Idea: Because Jesus rose from the dead, _____ can _____ in us.

Lee's story of Hope Rising...

What if hope rises inside you today?

Next Steps:

1. Determine what's causing the fog to rise in you.
2. Imagine what it would look like if hope started to rise in you.
3. Put your trust in the resurrected Jesus.

"Based upon what I heard today, I will _____."

For more information on Lee Strobel and his new book, The Case for Miracles, visit leestrobel.com.

Discussion Questions for Community Groups:

- Have you ever believed the lie Pastor Scott described ("These people around me have it all together. They're pretty perfect.")? What has believing that lie led to in your life?
- When have you been tempted to hide your mess and act like you have it all together?
- Have you ever experienced "the fog"? If so, when?
- What was "the fog" induced by in your life?
- In what ways did "the fog" make it difficult to connect with and experience God?
- Are you still living in "the fog" today? If you aren't, describe how God moved to break through the fog.
- What would it look like for hope to rise in you?
- What difference does the Resurrection of Jesus make in your life in a practical sense?

If you are interested in an electronic version of the sermon notes, please go to prescottcornerstone.com and click on our Archive menu. Here you will find the most recent sermon notes.

