

Say What?!
Week 1 - Shock & Awe
Sunday, April 29, 2018
Pastor Scott Savage

Painting a picture...

An experiment...

Matthew 5-7NLT

Two questions...

Big Idea: Following Jesus means uttering _____ as often as you say _____.

Examples: Matthew 16:22-23, John 13:21-24, Mark 14:4-6

Two Pillars of this series...

1. These words of Jesus are for _____, not for _____.
2. We need to _____ our image of Jesus.

Next Steps:

1. _____ Matthew 5-7 this week, at least a couple times.
2. _____ on your life and thinking. Ask, "Is there a place where Jesus has been challenging me and I've been resisting?"
3. Pray a _____ daily, committing to follow Jesus as the leader and Lord of your life.

"Based upon what I heard God speaking to me today, I will _____."

Discussion Questions:

- What stuck out to you as you listened to Matthew 5-7 being read today?
- What parts of the Sermon on the Mount challenge our culture's attitudes or actions?
- What parts of the Sermon on the Mount challenge attitudes or actions which are common to Christians today?
- When have you had a "Say what?!" moment while reading the Bible?
- When's the last time Jesus shocked/offended/disturbed/amazed/surprised you?
- Is there a place where Jesus has been challenging you and you've been resisting?
- Next Sunday, Pastor Scott is sharing about the central message of Jesus. If you had to summarize the central message of Jesus in one sentence, what would say it is?

If you are interested in an electronic version of the sermon notes, please go to prescottcornerstone.com and click on our Archive menu. Here you will find the most recent sermon notes.