

AND: Living Faithful to Christ and Winsome to Culture
Week 3 - A Conversation with Our Culture
Sunday, June 17, 2018
Guest Speaker - Chris Inman

Around the dinner table...

Context (Daniel 1:3-5)

Today's Passage: Daniel 1:8-21

Big Idea: To live as an AND Christian, we need to avoid _____ while skillfully _____ our community.

4 Dynamics in This Story:

1. _____? (Daniel 1:5)

2. _____? (1:8-10, 17-20)

3. _____? (1:10)

4. _____! (1:11-16)

Next Steps:

1. Come _____ before God.
2. _____ to somebody this week.
3. What is your _____?

Based upon what I heard God speaking to me today, I will

_____.

Discussion Questions:

- In his message, Chris explored several places where we are challenged to live today. Where is living as an AND Christian most difficult for you? Why?
- As you read Daniel's story in today's passage, how did Daniel's actions challenge you or show you an area where you need to grow or change?
- Chris shared a question he asks during his study - "where do I have this wrong?" Have you ever asked this question as you studied the Bible? How would you answer this question about the passage we're studying today?
- Chris challenged us to listen and understand others, in order to engage them. How would you describe your current efforts to listen? Is this a challenge for you? Why?
- If you were honest, would you say you get more passionate about winning arguments or being winsome? How do you feel about your answer?
- Chris shared transparently about his struggle to listen to his wife. He shared a tool they've used to hear one another. Have you ever tried this? If so, how did it go? If not, where do you need to start?
- In the section above, there's a sentence above which ends with "I will". What is your next step based upon how you heard God speaking to you through this message?

Further Reading:

Space at the Table by Brad & Drew Harper

If you are interested in an electronic version of the sermon notes, please go to prescottcornerstone.com and click on our Archive menu. Here you will find the most recent sermon notes.