4. Give _____ to those who differ from you. (1 Peter 2:17)

5. Have _____ in the powerful God you love no matter what the circumstances. (Isaiah 40:23)

6. When the fires of life are closing in on us remember that there is _____ person in the furnace with us. (Romans 8:38)

Next Step:

1. Pick your tribe and be intentional.

Based upon what I heard God speaking to me today, I will _____.

Discussion Questions:

- Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were men of conviction. How convinced are you of your beliefs? What steps can you take to strengthen your convictions?
- Do your actions speak louder than your words? If so, how. If not, what would you like to change?
- Do you find yourself engaging in unproductive arguments with people? What usually leads to these conversations? What steps can you take to avoid them?
- How confident are you that God will never leave you or forsake you and will be with you through the fiery trials of life? Can you share any personal experiences of how He has taken you through a difficult time in your life?
- Do you consider yourself a person of biblical integrity? What steps can you take to grow in this area of your life?
- How are you engaging those who do not profess faith in Jesus? What steps are you willing to take to become more engaged in our culture and the circles of influence God has placed you in?
