Discussion Questions:

-What was your biggest lesson from today's sermon?

-What do you feel God wants you to do next in light of this message?

-How comfortable are you embracing the idea that you are in a spiritual battle against Satan? In what ways does your comfort or discomfort determine your success or defeat in that battle?

-Jeff describes the meaning behind Paul's phrase "the schemes of the devil." What schemes have you been victim of in the past? How has your enemy used his "wiles" against you?

-Jeff shared many Scripture references which describe the way our enemy Satan works against us. How does understanding your enemy help you to identify your spiders and expose lies as they come your way?

-What component of the armor of God sticks out most to you? Why?

-Which component of your armor do you feel you need the most in this season of your life?

-Have you been practicing the next steps Jeff shared with us? What has your experience been like?
