6. _____ your obedience. (Josh 4:5)

Next Steps:

1. Remember, it's _____ too late to look for a second chance.
2. Identify your _____ and your _____.
3. Consider _____ or _____ you've written off that needs a second chance.

Discussion Questions:

- We've all experienced feelings of regret and failure. What are the regrets you feel most strongly when you look back on your life?
- Share a time in your life where God gave you a second chance and you took a step of obedience and faith. What was the outcome?
- Tom shared a number of verses which help us have confidence in God's presence. What verses have helped you follow God with courage and faith?
- In Joshua 3, the priests of Israel stepped into the water as an act of obedience before God parted the rushing river. Do you have a story or personal testimony of how God moved in your life after you followed Him in a step of courage and faith? If so, share it with the group.
- When you think about the "do over" God is offering to you, what are the barriers that are keeping you from taking the next step?
- What are some of those promises from God that can give the courage to take the next step?
- Have you ever created a memorial of an act of obedience like Tom described? If so, share with your group. If not, consider brain storming with your group.
- What do you feel like your next step is as a follower of Jesus? How can this group encourage or assist you in taking that step?
